I probably wouldn't have banned him unless he continued to do it. Yes, it was wrong, but at this point we can't really afford to lose anymore players. If we just got him to stop DDOSing servers it would be a positive thing for the community.

In addition, the downside of banning him is that he can continue to DDOS our servers with no further consequences just to spite us.

Now we just have to hope he eventually loses interest and goes away I suppose.
