iRANian wrote on Sun, 23 September 2012 03:48wow they deleted that thread? what a joke community, then theyre stalking jelly's forum to find fault with their community, pretty cool the deleted thread was about DJ accusing a random player of cheating and crying about it, after which a bunch of players told him to stop crying, including MDK. then he starts to threaten to board a plane to where MDK lives and kill him.

also in the thread one of the admins replies that "everyone on renegade wants you to kill yourself, mdk" or something like that

cool admins

The thread ain't deleted, it's hidden numb nuts. We're stalking Jelly's forum? lol who and since when? wtf

That wasn't an admin either, he's just a long time bud i've known for a while (Hawk) and has nothing to do with RC - he's head admin at MPF..
