i think, as far as renehistory is concerned, orca is or will be remembered as being better than you (HTMN)

"HTMN does well, but much of the time he's just doing silly stuff to make himself happy" but even then, even his best cw friend ioncloud said he thinks im better, i could do ALOT better in public, maybe now u can jumpstart me into trying my best in public but i doubt i'll play serious for more than 5 games in a row, it gets boring really fast public is just a clusterfuck of bad players, therefor not a single one of those guys could ever win a clanwar, because they just dont know what to do, they want to be backed up by alot of retards who also dont know how to do, have no desire for teamplay, and generally just have very very poor skills in both infantry and tanks, but since they have so many noobs rolling out shooting quite randomly, there are so many bullets flying out there that it actually does work lol anyways, an example of what generally happens when i play serious in public:

its impossible to have the exact impact on pub as u have on a clanwar, in pub you randomly join the game, there's more than likely 7 double teched arties/ an army of meds and havocs/pic's out there, no teamplay on any team( arty teching/stank rush is the best teamwork a pub player is capable of) so how on earth is anyone gonna kill 7 double teched arties when he's pretty much on his own in a completly uncoordinated team? you'll have to hotwire rush through a tunnel or so, but it'll be filled with atleast 5 sbh/mobiuses/gunners/... and 5 snipers, pretty much impossible to get through, aswell, still there are some ways that you can get the job done, but you have to be resourceful and just seize every chance you get to make the difference as an individual so your benchmarks for making just as much of an impact in public as in a clanwar, are quite impossible to meet in a fair amount of the situations ps: thx for iran for providing this piece of public screenshot material, which illustrates just how poorly public is organised, if organised at all lol

how can u even take shit like this serious, liquid? like i said its a clusterfuck of 50 barely average renegade players thrown into a map that is by far too small for 50 players to play on
