Crotard: "As you (liquid) said in the thread, you was expecting the moderator that made these "smart arse comments" to post the logs, unfortunately he didn't do so. For me that raises a red flag and I'm left wondering why."

To be such a forum lurker you suck some mad dick. If your serious? I said multiple times i was away without access to my laptop for a couple of days, after which I was going to make a post detailing as to why and apologised for having to run off.

After returning and seeing the shitfest topic locked (which i feel she deserved) I opened a new topic, explaining my actions and the reasoning behind it, why I hadnt been around for 2 whole days (341 rene days) and why I wasnt going to apologise to that twat... haha i like writing twat, thanks uk peeps.

Turns out andy, who was one of the mods called a moron posted the relevant logs anyway, so i didnt re-post as they summed it up.

So, in conclusion, shove that red flag up that ass of yours to happily match the one rachel has firmly implanted up there.

if people are gonna be this dumb... at least get the facts straight to be dumb about.
