I'm not backing liquid up, tbh I don't even know what conflict you have with him, nor do I care, all I know is, your a pretty "special" bunch of people here.

Lemme tell you this for the 10th time MDK, maybe them meds made you a little drowsy the other 9 times lv stated this, and since your clearly not taking them now maybe it will finally sink in, Im from London, or do you not realise that it isn't in Wales? Since your originally from Yorkshire all your life, you probably have much more experience with sheep than me.

G1DillyDo id be worried if you think a baguette is a dildo, maybe that's some sort of fetish of yours, where you use food as sexual instruments, maybe you should also be on meds, hell get enough people and maybe you can all have a weekly session where you go over each others issues.

Also MDK stop copy-pasting things from the internet that you found, it's pretty obvious since it has some grammar in it compared to the made up language you try to use, just makes you look more retarded(Wait at this point, is that even possible?).

P.S What do you mean by "Jelly retards", for a start I play n00bstories the most when its active(and I barely play ren at all), maybe people from Jelly seem retarded to you because you are super retarded, and don't understand normal behaviors.
