don't worry, we've already established you were lying when you said it was a 1v1.

Quote:neither of our teammates were doing jackshit, my 'teammate' certainly didn't stop you from getting off 400, then u buy a flamer and i steal it, tough shit, the game ended right there, but u can take these other people in the server in account if u want, but they did nothing whatsoever that influenced the game (how can they have, when they actually did nothing other than roll in your base while u got 1 building left, lol?) thanks for showing just how little you know about 1v1s, if you can't see how being against two people instead of one might make your decisions different as far as i was concerned the game ended when the map started on wallsfly and the gdi team had two players to the nod team's one, but by all means try to prove whatever dumbass point you like by referencing events in a game that was decided long before i bought the flamer; just try to be a bit more honest about it in future

Quote:and again: i never posted this screenshot to boast about anything, i was trying to make a point that 1v1's are generally gay and alot of times luck/spawns decides who wins the games
HI, 1V1S ARE STUPID, AND TO PROVE MY POINT I'LL POST AN EDITED SS FROM A PUBLIC SERVER WHEN IT WAS NOT 1V1 ON A MAP NOBODY PLAYS 1V1 ON

honestly, you shouldve shut up several posts ago if you wanted a 1v1 you knew where to find me; i posted repeated open challenges, and asked you personally, and there was a perfect server available for it. you say no to that, but then you smurf in a public server when it's not 1v1, post edited ss of it and lie about what happened, and that proves 1v1s are stupid? how did you get yourself into this intellectual mess?
