DJ also joined rencorner in Under to glitch abuse with sbh and walk on top of map to GDI base and plant a nuke on top of the building where he somehow failed to kill it even when cheating.

He will retaliate with my team hampering by pushing him and his buddies off the cliff. But I think team hampering to stop glitches is allowed especially when that team was of no help to the actual team

Great mod DJ. I see you carry the rules out respectfully in other servers

I had to join in there is nothing else to do before bed
