As a leader of the clan I will address it with him. If it was a demo thing I'll ensure it stayed there.

Our clan is founded on the principle of non-cheaters. It will not be tolerated.

He is in my clan, and I assure you it will be taken care of one way or another. Regardless, I do not feel he cheats anymore --- especially since he has gone out of his way to assist me with my anticheat movement/development.
