Probably Neo. If the Matrix is destroyed, why the need for another one? I'd heard the following theory before but hadn't yet associated it with Revolutions until someone pointed it out to me...Neo sacrificed himself to save humanity, and even died in a cross-shaped position. Then, the oracle says he'll return. It doesn't take long to put two and two together.

That was from Taximes.

Come on now, it shouldn't take that long to figure out, he is the second coming of the son of man. There are so many Bible referances in the Matrix and Animatrix its like watching Bible on tape. But I think he is the second coming of Jesus. Then there was my thread about the whole Matrix not even existing because of three logical flaws in the Animatrix. But anywho, Neo was the second coming of Jesus.

The machines could not build towers. Remember when thee ship flew up to the sky they fried upon getting close to the black clouds.

I still think someone should pull up my logical flaws from my topic and take a good hard look at them. No not Blazer, he thinks I nitpick too much.
