JavaxcxIf God actually destoried the cities of Sodom and Gamora, why are there still homosexuals in the world?

You're basing your morality off some words in an old book. Most of those words are good, but some are questionable. If we're taught to be accepting, why are you excluding homosexuals? Hypocrisy isn't a virtue.

I guess I'll explain it again. Homosexuality is not right and not moral. And in what way am I excuding homosexuals? I said they are people and I have no problem with them as long as don't don't try to come on to me or something.

And exactly what words in the Bible are questionable? I'm not claiming to know the book through and through because I don't, in fact I know very little. And yes, I'll base my morality off on it any day. Christianity is all about faith. It's easy t call me a hipocrit and I suppose because I claim to know right and wrong, yet I'm human and thus sinful.

Sorry if I offend anybody in any way becuase I don't intend to. But I'm going to stand up for what I believe in.
