Hot_Rodlol.. this is funny.. not to mention you are the biggest freaking nerd crimmson.. you take this game to serious.. you coulda warned me about the rule (seeing how not everyone will check a servers rules b4 they join) but know you just wanna kick me.. and all i said b4 you banned me was "lol" cause you got 0wnt.. but im sure you got your reasons for not having a life.. anyway GG's and nice 0wning ya punk ass

Here's a news flash for you... first of all you didn't just say "LOL", you said I couldn't handle getting "ownt". I can handle getting owned, lord knows I'm used to it because I'm not the best or even one of the best players out there, and I've always admitted that...

If I pay $$$ each month to host a server, I'm not going to WASTE that money on people who won't play by a few SIMPLE rules such as not exploiting map bugs and I'm not going to waste my money on people who call me names and treat me like shit. No, I'm not going to spiral into depression because you think I'm a nerd (oh no!!), but I will remove you. End of Story. That server is full almost 24/7... I'll let someone who isn't a n00b take your spot, kthxbye.
