The rich are rich... Theyre rich cause life worked for them. If your gonna give a tax cut thats accross the board, the rich will make out better because they're paying more in the first place.

If two people have bank accounts at a fixed rate of 6%.

One with 1000$ in the bank

One with 10000$ in the bank

After one compounding,

One has 1060$

One has 10600$

The first guy says "hey how come he gets more than me! We have the same rate!"

The reason: He has more money than you to start.

This was the best financial analogy I could find. I've been thinking alot about economics so this is the first thing that surfaced in my head.

I'm a republican and I support bush wholehartedly. I don't see anything he's done that makes me go "that ain't right!" Everyones so mortified and calling bush an evil infidel... I just don't get it. He's the president and he's doing presidentially duties... I just don't get people's beef...
