Those CTF scripts will not be ready for 1.5.  The way I had done it before won't work correctly, and I am in the middle of rewriting the entire thing so it would work correctly.  I worked on it all day Wednesday and 3 hours straight when I got home last night, and I am no where near finished.

I can have them done for the next update, but I seriously don't think I could get them done by this update.
