KIRBY098There is no longer any competent help here. All that's left is me, K9, hareless, and a bunch of n00bs who have just discovered the game in thier multigame pack from our buddies at EA who are squeezing every last dollar from the memory of Westwood...

Yea, there aren't much "original" members left. And don't forget me, I'm still here.

And Jefflee, I'll try and find the model for you. I'll post later tonight if I found anything.
