The information that site gave me is in accurate, unless soemone else got that IP address after the person who made the topics re dialed and got a new IP or soemthing.

City: Woburn

StateProv: MA

PostalCode: 01888

Country: US

The person who created the topics lives in my town. I know this because they knew my full name which I have never told anyone I have ever met online. Also they knew which High School I go to. I would have liked to know who exactly it was, but I guess I am to late.
