Hmm...the year's supposed to end in 2012....huh....well, let's see how many other years the world was supposed to come to and end...

1999

2001

2002

2003

2004

World's not at an end yet. Just because someone knows the Maya calender supposedly ended in 2012 and some crazy people who claim to be abducted by aliens just for a little publicity say some random stuff about 2012 doesn't mean crap. I hate stupid things like this. Besides, it would more than likely take magic to remove the world in 8 years.
