1. Marijuana and alcohol are both drugs and both have adverse effects.
2. Drinking in moderation is not as bad as smoking marijuana, and if you think otherwise, you're lying through that hole in your trachea. You are inhaling soot and ash.
3. neither is good for you, so you should steer clear until you are near or at legal age.
4. Marijuana doesn't make losers or cause you to fuck up your life. Only people who are already losers or already have a fucked up life will be shafted by it's use. Just the same, getting stoned all the time can cause you to mess up your priorities, so steer clear of pot.

Gunrun, just be yourself when talking to girls. It will all come together in time. You're still young, and you've got a lot to learn. Just be open, friendly, and yourself. Don't try to be anything else. If a girl is into you, then it'll come together. In the meantime, as to how to get girls, try joining sports/choir/school activities. You'll be surprised as to how many new friends you can make (and how many people you may have known for some time will become your friend). Don't be afraid to approach girls and talk to them or make small talk. That's the biggest mistake you can make.

Be yourself and don't be afraid! I have full confidence that you will do fine man.
