"He (Al-Sahaf) said the U.S. was so desperate to show progress that it "kidnapped" thousands of Iraqi civilians and forced them to dress up like soldiers, pretending to surrender to coalition forces"

"Al-Sahaf described coalition leaders as "liars" and "outlaws" and said everything the U.S. military had reported so far was propaganda. "

"The aggressors have retreated after they were taught a lesson and after they incurred many losses," he said, adding that coalition forces were becoming desperate and targeting civilians. "

"Al-Sahaf said Iraqi forces were defeating American and British troops across the south of Iraq. "

"Those Iraqi fighters, those heroes at Umm Qasr, are teaching the American and British invaders a lesson," he said. "Those Iraqi fighters are slapping those gangsters on the face and then when they flee they will kick their backsides."

And they are accusing US of war propaganda?

"Earlier, soldiers on reconnaissance missions reported that they had seen members of the Iraqi Republican Guard herd Iraqi women and children to military positions for use as human shields, a U.S. military source told Rodgers, who is accompanying the 7th Cavalry's 3rd Squadron."

:rolleyes: :rolleyes:
