NodbuggerIt wasnt our fualt. The UK is now saying the friendly/enemy code was wrong on your plane. making our auto defenses fire on it.

Ditto, pilots are supose to activate a communications system that identifies them as friendly. Either way 'friendly fire' deaths are apart of war and are not funny. If the UK or USA had lost 1000 ppl so far this wouldn't be an issue. But because we can do such a BAD ASS job people harp when NORMAL activity occurs...
