Stank9001) it doesn't suck

- 2) I dont want to start a flame war here and look at my signature
- 3) C&C Reborn has high tech and a proper background
- 4) well why dont u try to put single player in renalert

so u see when it is released it will kick your butt

1. We've yet to see ANY patch on Reborn, none whatsoever.
2. OK... and?
3. Reborn sure has high tech, but an extremely crappy way of showing it. Anybody remember the Devil's Tongue?
4. Read the forums; they in fact are developing Single Player missions for RenAlert.

It's been half a year since Reborn was released. In that half of a year, not even a single patch to fix the numerous bugs in it has been given to the public.

If you wish to compare this to RenAlert, there has been THREE patches for RenAlert, the latest two attracting the large fanbase they have now. And I must mention that the next patch, .993, will feature MAD Tanks, Demolition Trucks, Mine Layers, AND Naval combat, plus six new maps for players to enjoy.

I honestly doubt Reborn can kick even its own ass.
