If you'd pay a little more attention you might notice something.

No staff = no progress
no progress = no support from you now if ur willing to be on the staff, email me edit: i might add that if you look at renegade alert its not much harder. A guy who lives within 20 minutes of me and went to school with me sice the 5th grade (OrcaPilot) somehow created a harrier that can bomb and has its own style of missles. If i can get people like him on the staff this mod will go fast and be a good mod.
