TITAN has been edited by me and Gold. He added more dirty parts.

I added some details and placed Gdi logo on the right place.

And some screenshots :

Why do you have to bring that arguement up? It's pointless, he's not posting these here to show up RenAlert. Just let it die ffs.

Anywho.....Those new models/textures are looking pretty damn nice. Keep up the excellent work

HA... That so-called "mod" was just restarted by Renardin only a month or 2 ago, they're literally a year to a year and a half in production/quality behind Renegade Alert. Plus, they only have a couple things that look good, most of them still use the old, crappy models.

Quote:Nah its not a war its the truth!

Lol, the only reason for you to post that was to start a flame war. In that twisted, little mind of yours Reborn might be better, but here in the real world, it's not even close. (Reborn is alright now, and is getting a lot better, but it's still got a long time to fix the mess that gay fairy left behind (tell me, if he ruined the mod in the first place, why did you let him back on?) to be cosidered "good".)

No, it's an opinion. The original beta release of Reborn wasn't near the quality of the newer versions of Ren Alert (.992 and up), but as far as Renegade mods go it was pretty good. Think about it, all we have is Ren Alert, Reborn, Soul Survivor, plus like 5 others which may or may not finish. This game does not have very many good mods, so so what does the community do? It constantly flames the shit out of the second place mod for not being first. Granted certain people directly involved on both sides may have had reasons to be pissed, but the rest of the people are a bunch of ignorant, jealous assholes.

Reborn is getting better. Whether or not it becomes better than Ren Alert I don't know, all we've seen of it is a fairly buggy beta. But I hope they make it as good as possible, unlike some people who seem to hope they fail just so the mod they chose allegiance to will "win." It's just petty and stupid on both sides.

BTW - good models and skins Renardin.

Angel of Dawn. deleted all the bug reports, destroyed their community....no need to go into details here. I already feel bad that we've(NeoX) ruined Renardin's thread.

Devils Demolsiher , kinda the aquiviliant to the tech , packs enough c4 to take otu a building. I belive he will also have a shotgun and a silenced auto pistol.

I think the pistol, laser should be removed. It looks very retarded.
