Quote:well, nice history. I think the same about the old beta. I agree on almost all points. (but I can play it on Gamespy Arcade and on WoL)

Can't imagine some people play that old shit... so what ?

Last try to bring back the flame war ? failed, I asked my whole team to not bash renalert mod or it's team on all C&C forums.

But you can go on with that but without us.

I didn't even worked for the old beta. Almost all the team is new.

And I am happy that some Renalert members and Reborn members are chill with each other (not all, but some)

(oh and plz, don't ask to the members of my forum to bash reborn. You asked that to some reborn fans, they refused and you banned them from here, that's a bad behaviour.)

Well I think I will be banned also now, so cya to all my renalert mates if I get banned. (I still love your works)

That's what I wanted to post after a nice story about 'reborn bashed' again.

I didn't have time to finish it. I am banned... :rolleyes:

Quote:The error returned was:

Your posting permissions have been removed

Well, nice. At least you can read it. Maybe the post was deleted on RenAlert Forum. Some people want flame. They won't have it from me anymore.

(To all reborn fans, no bashing, no arguing... 'Ignore' is better)

I agree, I have been watching some of these flame war topic and I gotta say I am getting bored of reading the same thing over and over again.

At the end of the day you are 2 mod team, one might be a little better than the other, but help each other out and get along. Its no use flaming time and time again.

Andy.

Far as I'm concerned, Reborn sucks until you make it "not" suck... If that day ever comes.

And if you don't want to read insult wars, or whatever else, then don't bitch about it. Simply skip over it.

You are permanently banned from our forum... What, you expected me not to do that when you did the same to me?

That would be the adult thing to do, considering they don't go around saying RENALERT SUCKS on the Renalert forums.

Maybe this will finally end? Aircraftkiller does the same to every other mod. He posts his honest oppinion. Sure his standards are high but you dont have to take it as a personal insult toward you. Just Ignore it and take his advice to heed and try and fix the problems. Most of his points are valid but alot of it looks fine as is.

It's very hard to choose sides when most of the time he is right and most of the time the model and texture look fine. I usally stay out of it but it would be great it the bashing would end. I know he isnt going to stop with putting his oppinion because he has a right to. Just dont get angry over it.

Im glad people are man enough to own up to their mistakes.

I think 2 bans isn't much to ask to keep the peace.

Ack can post his opinion, so long as he give's a suggestion of improvement with it, theres no problem

It's not hard. He didn't even attempt to spell pendulum properly, so why should I write his name as anything but Pendumbass?

Because you always plague people about their spelling

I daren't make a typo with you around
His name is spelt Pendullum as far as i can remember :S

For your information, I spelled it as Pendullum and not Pendulum because I wanted a 9 letter name on the net.

I dont give a damn what you think, because frankly, your just a little boy trapped in a pathetic excuse for a mans body. Once again, grow the hell up!

Well I love ACK's advice, idc if it insults me hes usually correct, like I know Reborn is trying to be a good mod but who says other mods can't give advice, 99.9% of the time ACK is correct when it comes to renegade modding, so i'd ignore the insult part of it and take into consideration the advice portion of the message. Im on both sides here, sorry Renalert, sorry Reborn, your both great mods!

Who gives a shit about what he thinks.

Exdeath is exactly right, ACK is only giving his opinion and he's only ONE person.

Several people like the way that Reborn is going, I for one have seen a great deal of improvment upon a mod which started with a great concept but, didnt have the quality work put into it from the start.

Now that the mod is improving greatly,theres going to be some jealous type opinions from others that are pouring the same hardwork into a diff mod (renalert).

So you see....Enough with carrying on flamewars, just read his input and keep working hard and be proud of what you produce.

If I remember correctly, RenAlert is not a mod. Also, you can't say that they are jealous. They could be jealous, but I personally believe that they aren't jealous.
