Pretty funny. Reminds me of "Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade"

Looks like one GDI player stole 2 vehicles. 2 for 1 sale

The most curious aspect of the whole thing:

How is a lone GDI player in the Nod base, stealing two vehicles, while 3 Nod players are letting it happen?

heh, it was a modded game, we weren't serious about it. He was able to crush people with his "apc tip", moving the turret up & down rapidly. Notice the chat message in the second one.. it actually ties in well. As for the SS I took them and yes my computer was very slow.

Lol.
I just imagine the arty using the APC as a hammer to crush enemy soldiers...
Well, if I play Nod, maybe I'll laugh less...
But how did you notice the computer was slow?

Young_LinkBut how did you notice the computer was slow?There's 4 people on that server, I'm guessing graphics are set to lowest....cause it just looks so damn ugleh...

If you manage to get 14 fps in a game with only 4 players, with graphics on the lowest setting, you've got a slow computer.
