That's not racist at all. Prejudice possibly, but I'm not seeing anything that promotes any race over another or discriminates against another race.

You gotta be really sad to find something like that funny. Making fun of a blind man after he just died. I'm not the sort to get sensitive over little things like this, but I don't think anyone here finds that funny.

This on the other hand...

Sheesh you guys should chill-out in the Netherlands sometime. I actually don't find it funny, simply because I have absolutly nothing with Ray Charles.

But the fact that you can't make fun of someone who has died and had an handicap is really new to me. When someone famous dies over here, the first week my email is full of jokes about his death.

its not a very clever picture.

Why is it funny? just because everything is black and hes blind?
