I am so sick of ppl like you creating crap like this and it doesn't install right. Since most servers use the program one way or another. I don't have a choice but to use it. If you get mad and tell a bullcrap story about how much it takes to create this and stuff. Don't bother. I don't care. I don't remember on the box that this program was required for online play. Just fix this stupid problem and I'll be happy. Or Don't create the program so everybody uses it and are having problems. JUST KIDDING>. I've been reading some of your forums some posts are really entertaining. Your program works wonderfull. Been using it for sometime now. Figure you guys here needed to know that since this game is probably number 1 game that ppl cheat on. Hats off. RFLMAO.

I wasn't sure where you were going with this... but I think I'm supposed to say "thank you".
