are their any renegade version downloads for single player mode?
where do i get them, if their are any?

What is aimbot 1.1?

 !....

Well, maybe you need a bigger gun

are their any renegade version downloads for single player mode?
A single player game? Like the campaign you can get off the main menu?

where do i get them, if their are any?
Erm... see above, you need to answer that first.

What is aimbot 1.1?
It's for cheaters.

LOL CAPS LOCK EH?

Anyways, you need to stop aiming at the ground and start aiming at the enemy!

Now that you mention it...

The bots? Or the players? I don't know, maybe you suck at watching your damage indicators and health, or try an all RG server.

Why do I even post question.

You just had to make a joke instead of answering my questions.
Damn you taliban ..!.. :twisted: ..!..

stfu, you're the only noob here darkdemin.

the problem is you need practise or something, after you shoot people or tanks, check your score. if it's still at 0 you have the 0 bug. else, try multiplayer practise and shoot the bots for a while to help your aim. that's what I did before even going online. by the way if you have the 0 bug, you have probably added some stuff to your renegade/data folder, like a PKG, or a cheat, that forces you to have the 0 bug.

Not saying you are but 90% of the time the Zero bug is cause by Data folder drops AKA cheating. Remove anything you put in there and it wont zero out on you.

EDIT: And the 90% thing is my opinion, alot of people dissagree.
