Your have been banned from RenGuard by using a blacklisted exe file. I think it is game2.exe

You have a rare chance of being unbanned, unless you were mistaken and have an ip range close to any friends on the same network. Though this is a rare case.

Even if your ip does change you will be still banned, due to other RenGuard banning methods.

According to the provided screenshot, you're using a blacklisted executable, or were at some point. (Recently, if what you say about your recent absense/return is true.) Your only options are to donate to Blackhand Studios or by a new copy of Renegade and get a new ID. . .or. . .avoid playing on non-RenGuarded servers. Otherwise, you're pretty much screwed.

Have a nice day.

How about no retard, don't bullshit us. BHS get plenty of retards claiming they don't cheat and requesting to be unbanned from Renguard. What makes you so special?

Donate or shut the fuck up.

Do you think that BHS only bans your IP Address? If so, you're in for a suprise

If so, you're in for a suprise

You're also in for a surprise if you think you can just buy another copy of Renegade.

Crimson, you're too damned easy. If you're gonna ban someone from RenGuard, at least stick to it.

watches Crim ban his ass on that alone . . .crap. :x
(Not really.)

There are some extenuating circumstances that I can't discuss where cheaters can see.

You've been given one more chance.

You might note that no one suggested that he was using a "fake rg".
