Where did you get them? If you made them, then zip them up and send them to a member of the BlackHand Studios team for analysis. I'm sure if they're really not malicious then it would be a short time before they're allowed.

If they are malicious, then you just got pwned by RenGuard.

its models from the beta cut pack...

I have the 30mb zipped version. It's mostly a pack of low quality and cheesy dialog.

Anyway, if you want old some old models, go here:

Aircraftkiller has plenty of still unreleased Renegade content (the original Nod Apache for example), but it seems like he prefers to keep them as captive.

those are what i use but i also use a matrix stealth skin for the tank and bhs -.-

also im not gunna use the pistol model..it looks retarded

From the renasset zip, which do you have installed, GDIORCA-OLD, or GDIORCA?

. . .I really want those models. The E3 BETA ones. The ones that were apparently also in Renegade: Sole Survivor.
