SVKP = a way to pack a binary so that it's harder to reverse-engineer

It is not a virus/worm (even though some worms WERE packed using SVKP) in and of itself...this is just a false positive

Don't really understand this question.

Quote:7) What happend Renguard trouble?
Renguard uses SVKP to help protect itself so its harder to hack.

There is no reason not to trust it.

Quote:9) Why I should quarentine it? (I no want Outbreak virus computer) Sarcasm

Whats That
It's what the idiots at symantec a.k.a norton decided SVKP.sys should be called in their own little
