Subject: Wrong maps?

Hi, I'm using The All Seeing Eye to connect to servers.

It says in red letters (witch means that I don't have the map)
C&C Complex.mix but isn't this a standard map?

To download the Ubermappack will solve this (I think) but as I'm playing on European servers I don't really need this huge mappack.

I was just wondering if this Complex is a different map than the standard map.

Thanks in advance.

I thought so already, so why can't I play it?

When ASE shows the map red I can't and when it's grey I can even it is the same map.

Thanks, I've tried to dl it on renmaps but it says it's not a valid download link.

Any other site where I can find it?

Did it work, can you now play on servers with complex in the current rotation?

It works

But now Field it showing in red, maybe it has to do with the server itself. On other servers I can play all the custom maps.

Well if it is happening with all the default maps trying reinstalling over the top of your renegade.
