Don't you just love it when random people join and don't have any idea what they are talking about?

That, or morons who have to stick their nose into everything and make a big deal out of small things.

1. "Fucktard" isn't even a word.
2. The spelling is correct.(if it even was a word) Maybe you should get glasses...
3. It's most likely that luv didn't even make the picture in the first place.

I think you should change your statement to: "Warning, fool who can't see 'fucktard' detected".
And this time; direct it somewhere else, like a mirror

Thank you well said, and your correct I didn't make it. He is correct though, in the pic it's spelled fuchtard not fucktard. Don't really know why or care, you still get the point.

No, I'm pretty sure that it is "fucktard", but with the font that it uses the k looks like an h.
