Just to let people know that we are about, recruiting always and looking for cw's

We have around 30 members in the renegade division now so feel free to drop by one of our servers some time, AOW and Crazy AOW servers are up, Snipe server and Practice/cw server will be up soon so we will be ready for cw's with no server set up needed.

Forums: www.clanbbf.com - go to the renegade section as we play a lot of other games too.

Go there if you are looking to join or challenge us to a cw.

LOL - well we won't turn down a challenge, but we've been having a few problems with clanwars.cc recently and the 3 wins I racked up against EoE don't count cos they're not registered at all .

So what the hell, a few more losses won't do us too much harm.

Drop by the forums if you want to set up a time, not sure we will provide too much competition for H2O until we get our recruits trained up though tbh.

I tried logging in but it won't let me I've had a gotwhiskey account on their for years but it says it doesn't exist or is inactive

Yeah the teams might not be 100% fair so i was thinking to even and change things up a bit, we should play only core patch maps. That way neither clans know the maps well. Maybe you can find out for me if BBF is interested Pirate. If any other clan wishes too just let me know.

We will definately be up for it - just bear in mind that a lot of our members are new, we are still rebuilding the unit and many people don't have much/any cw experience.

Perhaps we could arrange a few practice matches first, including a couple of games with mixed teams - I know we could learn from it and hopefully put up more of a fight.

Forum accounts were all cleared out a few weeks ago, so anyone not active or in BBF had their account deleted.
