This is my desk. Yes, those ARE lego minifigures and other lego items

Also is the instruction manuals and stuff for my Motorola L6 phone

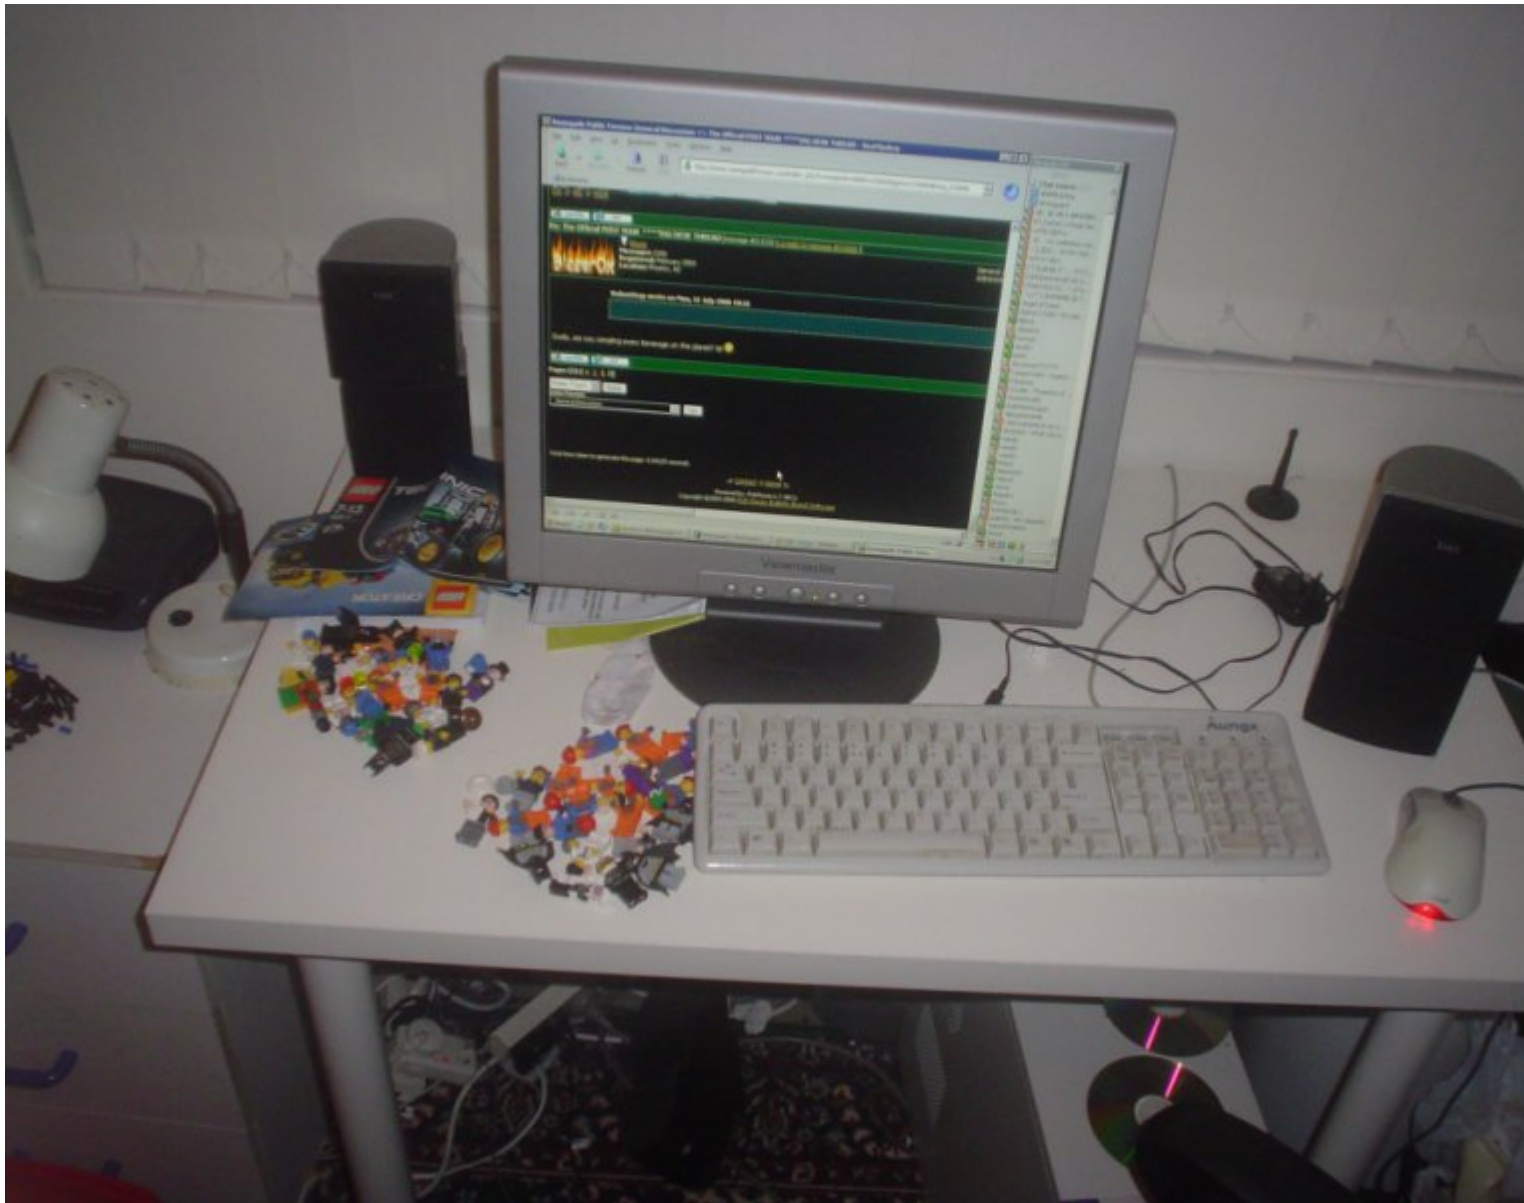

And the 19" flat panel (best computer related purchase I ever made)

And the Microsoft USB Optical Intellimouse (best mouse ever)

Oh and its not a desk, its a table (from IKEA). But its better as a desk than any actual desks that they had

I don't have any high-quality cameras... so you're gonna have to settle for phone quality.

Anyway, here is my main desk:
