Is he an Asswiser? or not? I'm here to give a list of popular quotes in which an Asswiser oftenly uses. Pay attention to caps and other marks, they are important to an Asswiser. I would not bother to worry about grammar or spelling, but in this case, I am aware that Asswisers leek on these forums, It will give them less to bitch about

"Ok."

"Yeah."

"You sir, are an idiot." Seems to be more of an Asswiser Renforums quote, but i thought i would include it here anyway

"Fucktard" or "Fuckwit" With or without a period here, Asswiser oftenly use these insults.

"O RLY" A very popular European quote, however an Asswiser will use this to try to make someone look stupid. They will most likely use this if his target is being serious with something. Turning to sarcasm can make someone look stupid, it can work, but its a terrible thing to do.

"Uhuh." This is a sign of ignorance, in an attempt to try to make his target look stupid.

"Er..."(Number of dots vary) This quote is not actually used against someone, its just a quote that Asswisers tend to use. not only Asswisers use this quote however.

"Heh." Sometimes "Huh."

Thanks you . These kind of posts will oftenly make an Asswiser angry, Bashing me will oftenly show anger, and sometimes not

It did not take long to make There are alot more Asswiser quotes than this, these are just many of them.

The user "Silent Kane" Was in fact one of the worst Asswisers I have ever seen. Possibly even worse than the one and only "Aircraftkiller" Who was recently Abolished from these forums.

What the fuck is the point of this thread? Seriously.

The only reason I see why you posted this was to try and back up your claims that there are plenty of "asswisers" on this forum. Congratulations, you figured something out that most of us have known for years.

As for your avatar, you're only giving me attention that you probably shouldn't be giving an "asswiser". Plus, being arrogant enough to label others puts you into the category of an "asswiser" and makes you a hypocrite. Nice job.

What fucked up logic you have.

You labled people in your avatar. You label people by their usage of certain words or phrases, so don't give me any of your psuedo-intelligent bullshit.

How is insulting someone by calling them an "asswiser" (as you clearly mean to use the word as a negative label) on the same level as a compliment?

This isn't useful information. It's stereotyping and labeling. It's one thing to insult a certain type of people, but it's another to try and label random garbage as useful information.

Well, treads are used for better traction on roads. Without treads, vehicles would would slide more and would be harder to stop due to the lack of friction caused by the tire not gripping the ground. Treads counter this and keep vehicles, and people, much safer.

He said that threads on tires help it keep traction.

So spam helps this forum out how? More BW usage? More of a downgrade then a upgrade. Forums without these type of threads would be better, and tires with better threads would be better. It goes in 2 seperate directions.

Someone just lock this post, its useless and causing spam.

Err...(3 TO BE A TRUE ELLIPSE)

Heh.

Huh.

PS: Darker, welcome to the ways of an idiot.

An idiot is a person who acts like a complete moron. No, let me amend that. An idiot is a person who *is* a complete moron. They make a thread and say "anyone who responds in a way I deem unacceptable is mad/geek/whatever" Unfortunately for idiots, they do not realize that you cannot tell a person is angry or geeks. These idiots (morons) also like to complain about small things like, "Hey, look at that guy's syntax! He's got capital letters and makes an attempt to spell correctly - therefore he must be attempting to act smarter than me. Because anyone who doesn't follow the internet tread...err... I mean e-tread, by spelling things like "ur" and "wat", is just an attempt to make themselves think they're more important/better. No, it couldn't just be that these people want to practice good grammar and punctuation because they might have jobs in the future that depends on being able to spell correctly, or not like a dumbass.

Ironically, these idiots think they're better for some reason, even though they do the exact same things they preach against. This makes them hypocrites, or just really dumb.

There are many different ways to be classified an idiot, if one was to look for a clearer definition of one. One could just read everything Darker says.

Anyways

I declare this thread closed in the name of Newfoundland

Nice theory

Asswisers once again, Asswisers value other peoples intelligents over who they are.

Lmao that basicly sums up that argument

I've been called an idiot by over 10 Asswisers, Asswisers aim for your feelings, not the truth. Even if it happened to be, so? doesn't make you any worse

My study is going well

YEAH RLY!

It's the internet. I don't see the point in socializing with someone when I can't understand what they say.

Umm, I aim to call you an idiot and prove you wrong all in one swoop, so that observation of yours is false.

Darker wrote on Tue, 17 October 2006 19:26"Ok."

"Yeah."

"You sir, are an idiot." Seems to be more of an Asswiser Renforums quote, but i thought i would include it here anyway

"Fucktard" or "Fuckwit" With or without a period here, Asswiser oftenly use these insults.

"O RLY" A very popular European quote, however an Asswiser will use this to try to make someone look stupid. They will most likely use this if his target is being serious with something. Turning to sarcasm can make someone look stupid, it can work, but its a terrible thing to do.

"Uhuh." This is a sign of ignorance, in an attempt to try to make his target look stupid.

"Er...."(Number of dots vary) This quote is not actually used against someone, its just a quote that Asswisers tend to use. not only Asswisers use this quote however.

"Heh." Sometimes "Huh."

Thanks you . These kind of posts will oftenly make an Asswiser angry, Bashing me will oftenly show anger, and sometimes not

Er... Ok, yeah. You Sir, are an idiot. You are a complete and utter fucktard. Heh.

Sure. I'm guessing he's a respected member of the forum who is posting simply to get a rise out of everybody. They had their fun. Reveal their identity.
