If you are bored can you take a screenshot of gman at a high resolution?

I want to use him in a backround but I cant find a good screenshot of him.

PS:Dose anyone know how to make the text in the windows icons have clear around it insted of blue around it?

I threw this together for you in a matter of minutes. Its harder than you'd think to position bodies. Anyway, there are two different "poses" as well as a 3rd shot that is slightly zoomed in. There's a bit of circus acts going on in the background so you'll obviously have to crop out what you need.

If this doesn't cut it, I'm sorry. Also, if you give me a specific pose or scenery I'll see what I can do for you with a little more time.

A bit off topic but don't you find it funny how idjit has learned how to type and spell since he changed his nickname?

How? With the 'Does', 'cant', 'doesnt' and many others (just chose those to prove you wrong ;P)

Compare to the posts he made when he still used "idjit" as nickname. You'll note a big difference.

Oh i can't be bothered to do that...

So what if he spells stuff incorrectly, half of the people in here can't spell it right. I couldn't spell stuff right when i first came here, and no-one complained, so what's the big deal?
