i am requesting for my website; any fanmaps; serverside mods or other type of mod (please, i know so many people have it, but i dont want the big head cheat/mod/whatever it is classed as). i would also like some screenshots of some renegade moments, or some fan made pictures to do with renegade.

i can host them on my website. i would prefer, if it was hosted somewhere else and i would give full credit to the host website and auther/creater(s). if you want me to take whatever you see on my website down(as long as you own it), i will.

here are some more

note the 2 nukes at the bottom corners sorry if this is a wittle rude, but heah, it runs off normal renegade bones

i have different coloured versions of this one (i edited the actual nuke in photoshop) please note that all of these images were not taken on online games. if i have broken copyright by using certain maps, crosshairs, skins, etc for them, please tell me so i can remove them.

if i need to i will edit anything copyrighted out.

can you please check before you publish them on your site ps the second ones map is mine.

i can also spare some maps, but the actual pkg/mixes i make are always full of bugs. if you do want them (gmax/renx/w3d scenes) i can email them to you.
