Lets post some pics of funny things in renegade!

This APC got sandwiched between a GDI APC and a med tank, he died moments after words.

We stole 4 of GDI's vehicles, lol.

HUGE MOFO MASS (we killed the AGI than the barracks than the WF ref was dead already from a spycrate/nuke!)

I fell on my side, my tank was like this for about 1 minute and some odd seconds before a friendly APC came by and flipped be back on my tracks! No idea how I lived but, I am not complaining!

So who else has some cool pics, I demand to see them!

Gunner rush

Dunno what happened here. :/

Engies giving up their life to save me

Who would do that on a map that had defenses? (extra guard towers)

I was sitting in the field shooting the HON and no one would kill me :/

I think the red picture is photo edited, the 666 ping is seperated each number by one pixel, while all others are seperated from 2-3 pixels....very odd, but funny.

Well...then the number spacing is modded/hacked to 1 pixel per space for ping then....that explains all....just checked and with a 6 in the ping, you can see the spacing is 2 pixels =D
