Instead of a blog this week, we've planned a live chat on n00bstories radio & teamspeak with additional questions being taken in our IRC channel, #apathbeyond, on the n00bstories irc server.

This will give everyone a chance to hear (and ask) about our next version as we draw nearer to completion. During the session we'lll be posting links in IRC to some exclusive content and news which we'll be discussing. If you miss this event we'll be posting a podcast afterwards on our site.
