Did you install SK's bandtest.dll on your client? Either that, or your bandtest.dll was simply munged...

To be honest I have no idea what you just said..

I installed it fresh from the game disc, to my knowledge that is everything.

NB - This file is not officially supported or endorsed by BHS (Black Hand Studios, I also make no assurances about anything to do with it)

Here's my copy. Don't forget to update to version 1.037 before playing online!
