Some sort of retarded love letter just dropped into my pm box. I've been trying to not get actively involved into this troopr02 stupidity, since I don't give a fuck about his little opinion, but this deserves some attention.

Not a single word makes any sense. This must be the product of an artist!

troopr02 wrote on Sat, 30 June 2007 16:55 Your a fucking disgrace to BI, you do NOTHING but make them looks like retards, I would advise then to ban your ass but we both know what they would say....

I dont give a shit what you can "code", if you cant even play the fucking game better than people like bbf or ekt whats the point? Exactly.

Anyday bitch, 1vs1, aow, snipe, any map, I dont give a fuck. lamaboy8me@hotmail.com, <---add me and ill setup a game, please dont dodge like the rest.

Use your biatch, so you dont cry "CHEATS!!!!!" when I fucking rape your ass ingame,

This is the exact reason why I don't try to do some good shit and make a name for myself in the community. Then you have to live up to the name (can be hard) and anything negative that happens only screws your reputation. And then you have to defend it...and it turns ugly.

In the end, you fall into the own hole you dug. I am not telling anyone to lay low but don't outdo your capabilities.

PS: This especially when you try to claim that you are the best player in Renegade...there are many players out there that are good. But unfortunately, we will never be able to test the skills of the elite vs other elites. So we must live with the possibility that out there, there may be someone better.

I agree with you IronBalls, but being good and bad has many different qualities but if people don't show to others that being good is a role that everyone has to participate, then things would be ugly "permanently."

My suggestion is that being positive is choice we all should choose.

Yes, someone better that doesn't show themselves much in public, but if were all this "great" then who's better?

Depends on the map and the choice of GDI and Nod

1 VS 1's sucks anyway, and show in no way skill. Also, the fact that you host, does give you the advantage of: choosing team, map and no lag whatsoever. Also, you could limit the bandwidth towards the other player, and thus make it impossible for him to play.

Your avg score appears to be around 1100, whereas mine is about 2000. Your average ladder points: 2; compared to 8 for me. I played with you on our server, and wasn't much impressed, other than that you joined, left, your friend joined, and you joined again to make it a 4 vs 2 game. (might be the other way around as well).

I'm not even saying anywhere that I'm better than you, and tbh, I don't even care. Call me a dodger, loser, winner, whatever you want, I don't care. Noone will actually listen to you anyway. I have nothing to "prove" towards you, I play this game for fun, not to be the best player around. I don't really like 1vs1's at all, so there is little fun, hence I prefer to play in a public server with a few more people over playing a 1vs1 match against some random person who thinks he has to prove he is better than everyone else. I have better things to do.

Why does everyone care about 1 Vs. 1's?

Personally, I'm good in a tank, excellent with a sniper, but crap when it comes to defending with anything other than 1000's.

Everyone has their strong points, but this 1 vs 1 bullshit, is getting stupid.

Just because you can beat each of the other players teams one on one, doesnt mean you can beat the team.

After all, this is a TEAM game, right?

1 vs 1 - Still shows plans and skills, but I prefer community servers, or something that involves more than 1.

2 vs 2 - Shows mostly team work.

Still, there are disadvantages, which really sucks when your playing 1 vs 1. (GDI or NOD, depending on the maps, and lag)

It doesnt show skill.

It shows that you know how to act as an alone unit.

You can put a team of people who are excellent team players, to a team of mostly 1 vs 1er's and see who wins.

Regardless of what you say, you will always see the single players thinking their idea is the best, and overall causing the team to do nothing.

Quote: It shows that you know how to act as an alone unit.

Agreed.

Quote: the single players thinking their idea is the best

Their ideas may be different than the "team" itself, but they can still participate and use the experiences they had (1 vs 1) along the road.

Quote: the single players thinking their idea is the best, and overall causing the team to do nothing.

If the team disagrees the "idea" then of course, they wouldn't follow it, because they may know more (skills and working together) than that single player, so it would prevent that overall situation.

Quote:

Well, first of all, it involves multi-action. So obviously the team players would win, and plus they have more chance to experience the skills they need to "wipe out" the 1 vs 1er's.

As you can see I quoted all the facts you mentioned.

The problem is that while playing Trooprm you have everything to loose and nothing to win. He's the only one thinking he's the best, all others assume he sucks. If you win, then it'll be normal; if you loose, then he'll come here and brag about it.

Also, the fact that you host, does give you the advantage of: choosing team, map and no lag whatsoever. Also, you could limit the bandwidth towards the other player, and thus make it impossible for him to play.

thats exactly why players like you while be no where near players like me. btw, im not he best either, I have lost a few games against people who play more 1vs1's than me. If thats your excuse for nod playing me, that im gonna limit your bandwidth so you lag so I can bet you, you host. Your the host, your side, your map. Deny this and well, theres nothing more I can say to make you stupider. Even if I did host, there wouldn be no lag. I hosted for mine and alex's game, I told him, the second you lag, tell me and Ill work something out (diff serv), he didnt say a thing shall I PM spoony and he will 1v1 you?

Who are you? Spoony's manager? I'm sure if spoony really wanted a game with troop, then he'd be alot more persistant with trying to get troop a game...that, or...he's given up trying to get this dodger to play him.

After all, you saw that thread he made in the politics secton tryng to make spoony look like the dodger...

shall I PM spoony and he will 1v1 you?

you really have to be 9 years old not to play someone because they will "brag" about it. Ofcourse I will, first off i wanted to play that slave guy, now he says he wont play and creative tries to sneak out by arranging this game in this topic I he made. Dont think I forgot slave, nt tho. Its nothing personal apart from the fact of your ego, I have 1 too, so to do MANY players, the difference? Ill show you ingame.

if you are REALLY seriously refusing to play me in a server hosted by you, your map, your side, your everything that shows you have no chance at beating me so i see why you have nothing to win here at all, but a 2vs2 or 3vs3 is fine, but maps, sides, rules and etc will be worked out, who will your people be?

In an attempt I already predicted to be futile, I tried to have a conversation with him over MSN. Between all the retarded crap he squeezed out of his little brain, I managed to find a bit of troop logic. In order of appearance:

- From the beginning of the conversation, persistently act as a retarded ghetto highschool dropout. This will make people respect you, and fear your intellectual skills.
- Attacking a person with homophobic insults, increases the leet factor of the attacker. This is not to be considered immature at all.
- In no event, ever, make any sense.
- When facing an argument, attack the person with some more idiotic flames. This is considered the perfect counter argument, and does not have to be based on any facts.
- When facing an argument, never ever back a statement up with facts.
- When facing an argument, spam how leet you consider yourself.
- When facing multiple arguments, make sure to ignore at least half of them.
- Social skill does not exist. This is compensated by the illusion of having gaming skill.
- Always make links between totally unrelated subjects. this way your reply looks somewhat like a valid argument.
- When, eventually faced with the clanwar you cried about, and did not anticipate, quickly push the eject button. This means you flame the other person some more, and quickly sign off. A subtle way to cover up a dodge, wich will make you look like a winner.

With his dodge, I consider this topic closed, but not before troop returns once more, to come up with some ignorant flaming reply of ultimate denial.

Welcome back, signature.

First off, I think you mean ratio. A ration is something that they eat in the military.

I'd like to see how you fair in a 1v1 game of APB, bitch. Then you can't accuse anyone of hacking because all of the respectable players don't hack.

I dislike 1v1 games, they don't prove anything apart from the fact that you destroyed the other guy's base quicker. Try getting an MVP *6 or something on a 35+ player server. Then you'll have something to brag about.

saying 1v1 doesn't prove skill is just plain wrong, otherwise how do certain players consistently win them? Sheer luck?

as for the "1v1 is nothing to brag about, MVP in a public server is" comment.... just lol. Anyone can play for points, it's not the same as actually affecting the game's outcome... and in a 1v1, who else is going to do that for your team?

It never ceases to amaze me how troop's counter-argument (besides the obligatory flames) is always a challenge for a 1v1, as if that proves anything other than who can beat who in a 1v1. It doesn't show too much for one's intelligence, and it certainly doesn't prove one to be right or wrong by winning or losing.

Personally, I don't see why everybody gets themselves caught up in this troop drama of dodging and 1v1s. Nobody listens to a damn thing he says, so who cares if he says he's better than you or that you dodged? We all should know by now to take what he says with a few grains of salt. He's an idiot. That's all that needs to be said, and it should all be left alone, but half of you have just as big of egos as troop does. You may actually be trying to prove a point, but you let yourselves sink down to his level because you feel that you need to be the bigger man. Be the bigger man by being the bigger man and just STFU.

As for that n00bstories story, that's clearly not troop. While both authors use piss-poor English, they are nowhere near the same in style. It's a pretty bad fake, and whoever did that is just as stupid as troop is if they think we'd be fooled. Plus, the excessive use of ":D" in that story was a dead-giveaway even without the surrounding rapage of the English language.

He isn't a mod here.

Also, I'm absolutely terrible at Renegade, but I still think you're a worthless fag. This isn't the ingame-Renegade forums, this is also the forum where people generally talk. It isn't a bloody legal requirement that you have to be good at Renegade to post here.

Great troop can't seem to figure IPs are associated with mIRC And are you really retarded? I switch to Bell means...*GASP AT BREAKING TROOPS RETARDATION BUBBLE!* My posts/data/ comes from Bell's lines Yours comes from Rogers it's easy as that. If you do not get me...I-U-S-E-B-E-L-L. Y-O-U-U-S-E-R-O-G-E-R-S. D-I-F-F-E-R-E-N-T-I-S-P-S.

EDIT:^^Quote:^^coming from a kid who lives in his parents basement, doesnt even play this game, nor was good at any point, but still hangs around here because he is a mod? Again, nice try, your opinion is worth -1 Tell Me Great! Which kid DOESN'T live with his parents? You want them to live on the fucking street? He made more sense in that single post than you in your entire life. Which means YOU cannot get modship besides your little shitty 16 player server. (Which is a waste of money since *GASP* no one goes there!

Your last sentence made no sense so I'd just not respond to your pure stupidity.

Kid? I may live with my parents still, but I am no kid. The reason I still live with my parents is because it's more economical that I live there, cutting my monetary costs while I'm still going to school. It's not like I'm 25, either. I'm barely 21. Get over yourself, you pompous little fucktard.

I do play the game, but rarely. I didn't know that playing well determined whether or not I have the ability to reason. I hang around here because I'm still part of the community.

You're just annoyed that I hit the nail on the head with my previous post, and your retarded flaming is all you could do to retort my points. Consider your retort failed, and consider this an all too familiar, successful counter-retort.

oh let me guess troop you are not living at home anymore?? you got your snowboard sponsor and you are rich living on your own and have a lambo parked in the garage? please we all know you are a nerdy little retard that still needs to be tucked in by his mommy every night and told that he is the best in ren, and we are all just jealous of your godlike skills.

so why wont you shut the fuck up and just go do a 1vs1 with some1 who started playing yesterday and brag about it to your imaginary clanmembers.

oh no now im going to be told lol or even scarier i will be challanged to a 1vs1!

which you dont have to even bother saying since i wont bother wasting my time in a game with you... you are not worth my time.

i would much rather play spoony then you since he actually has sportsmanship. and even if he beats me he wont throw it out every time he sees me post.

It always makes me laugh when someone who is absolutely 100% DEPENDENT ON THEIR PARENTS and wouldn't last a week if they disappeared pokes fun at someone else's work/money situation

Does it look like it? No.

This topic should have died at page one. It was funny to begin with, but at the moment it no longer serves a purpose. Noone needs to be convinced anymore. Everyone agrees on the subject. Postcount +1 has been applied plenty.

Troopr02 lives in his own little world, in his own little mind. He will be safe there if we leave him alone.
