Hey, it's a little game. I will post a picture, and you must beat it. For example:

I'm own everything

Oh no you don't, i will blow you away!

I will disassemble your mine.

etc. etc.

You can't use something that has already been used, and only 1 image per post
You will get a funny "story"

It's summertime, and livin's not all that easy

"Summertime, and the livin' is easy" begins a George Gershwin song that many of us can hum. When it comes to their favorite time of year.

But to others, summer isn't such a hot time.

If you have children, July and August can be a 62-day challenge, and a budget buster. Summer camps are not fun

And taking a family summer vacation isn't as easy as it used to be. You've got to plan ahead and coordinate everything because they flunked a course, but because they want a lighter schedule for fall or winter.

Parents must check their respective work calendars. Many small businesses observe a first-come, first-served policy

Another downside to summer is the heat. In Southern California, we're lucky because we can often turn off the middle of the afternoon, peak consumption hours for electricity.

When demand exceeds supply, power companies deliver rolling brownouts.

Does anyone else find it hard to believe that we occasionally run out of electricity in the 21st century?

Come on, this is America and highly paid corporate executives should have seen the energy crisis coming. We're

For the most part, we're lucky. Back East, the heat delivers floods, tornadoes and hurricanes, stinging flies and

We only have West Nile virus to worry about.

EDIT: Firefly is good but it cant beat the tardis.

I forgot to mention: Nothing can destroy the TARDIS, except when it's doors are open mid-flight (Going to an alternate dimension also almost killed it )
