There is no way in heck I am going there, just because it's name is too long, I don't want to go to a empty forum with a stupid name.

Btw, xwis already has a forum for all the mods, talk, and anything about the older cnc games, so good luck copying their idea.

Rules @ <http://boardster.net/thecommandandconquerseris/viewtopic.php?t=2>

Moderators: Respect the decisions of the moderators, they hold that position for good reason. If you have any serious complaints, contact Crimson or Blazer privately. Do not start a public bash-fest against a moderator you don't agree with.

Ahahaha.

That's more of a reason to not go there, then.

And if you're "The_Elite_General", then that ALONE is MORE than enough reason to NEVER EVER go there.

STFU stop cutting it down with all of your "xwis already has one" I just run a good forum that really supports teh older games well and can be cattered to easily. Just try and be supportive rather than a dick.

Your grammar will really help a forum with 1 member. Aka you.

Huge run-on sentence, teh instead of the, cattered? And forum name wrong. I could go on.

I don't think Blazer and Crimson really want to receive complaints about your websites moderators.

But guys, give him a break. He'll give up in about two weeks or so, just like that R3N3G1DE guy who made his own parallel 'Renegade' forums.

Dude, your forum is founded on a pretty awesome idea but the way you did it was crazy. It's too many things to scroll down through, for one.

I didn't register on your forums, but I did find a nifty advertisement for vehicle paint care products from "Colour Shield International" .
