This skin was already released on many sites, quit taking someone else's work as your own.

I never claimed it as my own lamo, I got it then posted it.

However, I did indirectly made it look like my own.

Why would you release something old but claiming it as your own?

I told you, I never claimed it as my own. It just looked like I did because I added the word [RELEASE] to my topic title. Then just said "Hope you guys like it"

Personally I think it is pretty sweet.

That implies you made it, [RELEASE]HUMMERSKIN, HOPE YOU GUYS LIKE IT

And then attachements mayby I should make a new thread and demostrate it or just use your imagination MSwindows.

And if you know that it is old why post it as NEW

Anyways it is ugly
