That's was my first thought...in worse cases, a broken neck = paralysis below neck = no Renegade, no more girlfriends, end of all fun.

Whatever this "tricking" is would require these goons to get up from behind their computer screens beyond eating, sleeping, or shit/pissing. I doubt anyone else here does it. IF I do anything like that it'll be with a skateboard, maybe a helmet.

I saw kids doing that a while ago, but I thought they were just on acid.

I've been unbanned as of like two months ago if not longer. I asked to be unbanned, so I was. Don't get all butthurt over it.

Hey nice. I just started with very basic jumping techniques=

For the link thing, you have to blame it on YouTube. Every YT link we germans call will be prefixed with "de.youtube.com"/yxz since they started the localized versions of it. The only change what will happen for us is the german Frontend, all videos are stored on the same servers.
