i have downloaded skins onto my computer, then installed renguard and as i expected it said skins detected, and made me install cp2 (i have vista). and after that i could not find the files. so i decided to uninstall the program and the re install it. and the skins are still on there, i dont know how and were they are but im sick of a certain skin (its a voice thing that goes over the commands)
please help
regards sam

Clear your Renegade\Data folder of anything that ends with .mp3, .wav, .dds or .w3d

This folder is normally found at C:\Westwood\Renegade\Data

You can just move them into a folder somewhere if you might want them later.
