HeavyX101 is my cousin, His IP address got banned, but i didnt know it was, So i logged on, on his computer with my nick name Mafia4lif, and it said that i got banned by using *cheat name removed*by hammer, can you please do something about it. If it is not a good place to complain about it, in what section do I complain?

I wouldnt join if i knew that his IP address got banned, and now i am at home cant login with my computer either.

You people cannot seriously be buying, "IM HIS CUZIN AND I DIDNT NO HE WUZ BANND" bullshit. I mean, Heavy isn't a COMPLETE retard. He knows he's banned, and he knows he'd have to change his IP to get on a server. Why would he let his cousin attempt to play?

It actually is his cousin. No sarcasm, it really is. I'm serious, although I know the timing is really bad, and I know they seem very similar, it really is his cousin. Or at least not heavyx. However this guy also used *cheat name removed* on the reborn server, I was going to give him another chance, but if Jelly banned him too for cheating he proved he cannot be trusted.

He also used *cheat name removed* on the reborn server, but has since shown some (in my opinion) genuine remorse (after being confronted with logs from the reborn anti cheat code). Whether Jelly will believe a word of it is a nother thing, but it is my intention to give him one chance only.
OH, COME ON. If we've learned anything from his inbred cousin, there is no true remorse for their cheating.

Plus, I still refuse to believe him until I can see proof of him using the same IP before AND after getting banned from Jelly, and have that not be a proxy/tor.

Edit: Wow, I double posted. Heh. Ah well.

No, Cheesesoda, Mafia is Heavy's cousin. We already know this because of the incident on C&C Reborn. They are two people, with two different IPs. Heavy has the ability to change his IP, but mafia has a static. There was one occasion where mafia had the same IP as heavy but that is part of the incident on Reborn that I'm not going to repeat now.

Bottom line is that it has been proven true that they are two different people and that they are related. Don't assume things when you don't have any information. From the way you are arguing, you don't have the sufficient information on mafia to treat him the way you are treating him.

We've proven it true. Don't assume things when you don't have any information. I think it's a lot fucking safer to assume that they're the same person than to assume they're not, if this game's history has given us any indication.

Even then, I'm not inclined to support giving him another chance (regardless if I actually have any say) for the simple fact that he seems to be TOO much like his cousin.

I edited the above post. I'm not assuming if he is him or he is not him. I know it is not him.

Trust me, if I wasn't 100% positive, I would not be being so lenient. I was the one who singly tried the hardest to make heavy look bad. Why would I be supporting someone who claims to be related to them if I didn't have 100% assurance that he wasn't lying?

I'm defending MY assumption by saying that the track record of 99% of the people wanting amnesty for being "relatives" is proof enough that nobody should be trusted, initially.

Fuck, I mean, it doesn't take a genius to realize that one's cousin is a fucking moron. Mafia should know that Whorequeer is a moron and has been banned time and time again. It's simple deductive logic to figure out that his IP is almost 100% guaranteed to be banned.

Errr... you completely missed my point.

My point is that YOU should be smart enough to know that your cousin is a fucking MORON and isn't to be trusted. Assuming that you've been playing the game longer than a week, you know that he's been banned continuously. As well as knowing that you can be banned by IP, not just nickname. It doesn't take a stretch of the imagination to realize that you'd be banned by simply using his computer because he's an idiot.

Edit: No, troop, I just join random communities that I have absolutely no connection to...

Are you seriously this fucking stupid? I've been playing this game since the week it was released. Not constantly (and my being horrible at the game is evidence), but I'm certainly not ignorant to the game.

of course this means absoulutely nothing because it's not in jelly forums.

I can understand what you mean. Just because we all know of his history, someone outside Renegade wouldn't really know anything.

However if you take this matter up with Jelly Server they will probably laugh at you and think you are lying about being his cousin.

Your best bet is to just find another server to play on.

I think Heavy being so hated would be so blatantly obvious that he wouldn't have had to tell mafia that he's been banned.

I would find it hard to believe that they hadn't attempted to play on a server together at least once or twice. Chances are, Heavy would have been kicked/banned, and mafia would have seen the kick/ban messages.

Look, I'm not saying mafia isn't trustworthy. I'm not saying he's Heavy. I'm saying, I don't see him being that intellectually superior to Heavy that warrants my approval.

Because I'm tired of your overwhelming obliviousness, I'm going to give you a link to their forum.

<http://www.jelly-server.com/nuke/modules.php?name=FUDForums>

From there, navigate their forums, and find their discussion board for bans or anything else pertaining to their servers. If they don't have one, look through the members list for hammer.

Assuming you know how to click on a link, this will be the last thing you need to ask regarding your bans.

We've proven it true. Don't assume things when you don't have any information. I think it's a lot fucking safer to assume that they're the same person than to assume they're not, if this game's history has given us any indication.

Even then, I'm not inclined to support giving him another chance (regardless if I actually have any say) for the simple fact that he seems to be TOO much like his cousin.

I agree, they are both annoying, but I must persist that they are two different people. Although one could argue that they are so similar there is hardly a difference. Seriously, they are two different people though.

Saw this topic and I recognized the name "HeavyX101". I was playing in one of the Jelly servers and saw a message that he was kicked/banned for using rgh. I paged him while I was ingame and had an ongoing discussion in which he admitted to using it and I was just taunting him like "HAHAH you got banned cheater". I was given a response like "I can change my serial and IP!!" and I was like "So you admit to using it?", I never got a reply after that.

When was this?

Either yesterday or a couple of days ago. (not too far off)

You guys go banned off of Jelly Server for RGH.

Source

Source2

Or for thoes of you that can't read it

Quote:[~Crimson]: HeavyX101 @ 24.153.*.* has been caught cheating on [WGC] www.wittebolx.com :TDM (RGH: rghook.dll)

When can we finally stop talking about this guy?

We already know that. The problem is that Mafia, his cousin, went over to play on that server at Heavy's house. Now he is name banned.

All Jelly has to do is unban mafia...err yazoogang. (not IP unban, but name unban). We already know Heavy cheated on their server, but gang didn't.

If they were to unban the IP yazoo used when he got banned, that means heavy would be let back in. However, if they just unban yazoogang's name, then he will be allowed back in, keeping heavy banned.

Edit* I can't see what's in those links, they both bring me to a blank page.

I still think he's a bit oblivious for not knowing that Heavy has been banned from just about every server.

Well, I guess he was think he was named banned and that now his nick is banned. There he was not thinking of an IP ban.

Heavyx's ip is as random as you'll get it. So unless he got in that server right after Heavyx got banned, an ip ban has nothing to do with it. I'd rather say his serial got banned and they play(ed) on the same serial.
