I would be content if all techs knew about the 30 mine limit (which includes remote charges, I snapped the other day when our powerplant blew and some guy had dropped 28 remote charges beside the plant) and that repairing the MCT repairs twice as fast. Very frustrating to yell out "REPAIR THE MCT" while some idiot is outside trying to repair the actual cracks in the building.

I have found myself addictided to the tech, and found myself reaching thousand point games strictly on Defense.
