Oh...

So, why not actually make American and Iraq skins (and maybe totally new building models) instead of just pasting a flag on the original skins?

Lovely, just lovely, I think I almost like it, but I don't. Why would anyone want that? Whats the point?

It has nothing to do with the fact that I don't like them. I just think they are kind of pointless. If you want some positive feed back, do something more the replace two dds files.

It doesn't matter to you if people don't use it? Than why do you even make them? What's the point?

Prior to that post, no one here has "complained" about those skins.
