Since nobody else is actually helping...

Here is the correct area for your post,

http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=thread&frm\_id=13&rid=23934

Please make sure you at least skim through the stickied topics (they are there for a reason).

actually he's right There's nothing that says how to uninstall renguard.

(a mod will move this topic anyway...)

Check If you have a "game.exe" in your renegade folder. If yes, delete the "game.exe" and rename "game2.exe" to "game.exe". Basicly renguard should be uninstalled now (If not.. correct me, plz)

You still have to patch your renegade. this was formally done via rengurad but has to be done completely manually now.

Check this guide, plz:

Since I don't see anyone actually answering his problem I think I will, that error comes up when Renguard cannot find a WOL/XWIS Nickname, to solve this go into your Renegade folder and launch "game2.exe" and then login to your account, then after that try launching Renguard.

Are you running Vista? If so, you need to run Renguard in admin mode, else it can't access your registry to get your last login nickname.
